Seventh Sunday of Easter

May 16, 2010

Nursery care is available in the Ministry Building

We realize that it is difficult for some people to stand for long periods of time, or to kneel. Please feel free to sit as necessary during the liturgy and the prayers. Sitting during the confession is also appropriate for those who cannot kneel.

Rev. K. T. DeVries

The Losers

They save their cheers for the winner Who reached the high road of fame,
My cheers are for the loser Who tried, but missed his aim.

My heart goes out to the fellow Sitting alone in the dark,
Who sadly watched his arrow Sail out, and miss its mark.

I hail the confident runner Giving his heart and his soul,
When he tripped and fell, dejected Just inches from his goal

Somewhere, the good Lord is holding Prizes He'll give to replace
The ones denied the runner Who stumbled in the race.

The heart that has yearned when no one Cared for its need and worth
Will find, at last (with Jesus) the love It failed to find on earth.

Join us for coffee and fellowship in the gym after the 8:30 a.m. service.*

COMMUNION: Holy Communion will be celebrated today. If you are a member of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod and desire to take communion, please indicate on the Rite of Friendship card found in the pew and place it in the offering plate. All other guests are kindly asked to speak to a Pastor before communing. Both the common and individual cups are offered at each table simultaneously. If you desire the common cup, the Pastor will provide it to you, while the Elders serve the individual cups. It is proper to take hold of the cup when receiving the common cup. This helps prevent spilling and greatly assists the Pastor.

NON-ALCOHOLIC WINE AVAILABLE: For those who are allergic or for health reasons unable to drink regular wine, non-alcoholic wine is available for Holy Communion. The non-alcoholic wine is white in color and is in the three individual glasses in the center of each tray. It is available in each service at each table. The reception of this wine in no way affects the theological meaning or benefits of this Sacrament.
